

PRESS RELEASES

A promise of design

Beirut Design Fair announced in a news conference the holding of its second edition at the Seaside Arena (formerly BIEL) from Sept. 20-23. A VIP opening ceremony is set for Sept. 19. The event builds on the remarkable success of its first edition in 2017, which witnessed almost 17,000 visitors, a number expected to exceed 20,000 this year.

PRESS RELEASES

The Daily Star (Lebanon) 7 août 2018

A promise of design

Beirut Design Fair announced in a news conference the holding of its second edition at the Seaside Arena (formerly BIEL) from Sept. 20-23. A VIP opening ceremony is set for Sept. 19. The event builds on the remarkable success of its first edition in 2017, which witnessed almost 17,000 visitors, a number expected to exceed 20,000 this year.

